PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

DLA Piper – Artificial Intelligence and Analytics

New York, NY

Data Scientist

September 2023 - Present

- Translated complex kickback statutes into ML classification models in collaboration with AI team attorneys to prioritize high-risk document sets and reducing manual review document set by ~70%
- Led disparate impact analysis of client AI systems using statistical tests and regressions to identify potential algorithmic bias, ensuring compliance to industry fairness standards.
- Developed full-stack AI red-teaming application (FastAPI/React) to automate legal risk assessments of LLMs, improving scale, speed and traceability.
- Automated complex analytics workflow to identify non-NYC corporate taxable income and recover over $1M in taxes
- Analyzed federal (CMS) drug formulary data to assess Inflation Reduction Act Part D negotiations impact, contributing to 5 firm publication articles
- Developed semantic feature engineering pipelines leveraging parts-of-speech, tf-idf, n-gram and other NLP methods for unstructured data to ingest into downstream classification models, improving accuracy, precision and recall.
- Integrated human-in-the-loop controls and input/context documentation throughout AI solutions to ensure lifecycle traceability and iterative validation.

Upstream Security – Automotive Security Firm

New York, NY

Senior Data Analyst

January 2022 – September 2023

- Managed analytics workstreams for three automotive clients to strengthen fleet security.
- Optimized large-scale data ingestion pipelines in Hive, reducing data storage costs by 30%.
- Deployed and monitored ~70 data-driven models to identify vehicle security threats across threat vectors.
- Analyzed vehicle data to reduce threat detection model false-positive rates by 90%.
- Built YAML and Kotlin data parsers to ingest high-volume vehicle data for digital twin updates in security product.
- Led bi-weekly forum of data team analysts to discuss new technology and implement innovative team solutions.
- Developed exploratory, time series, and ad-hoc Python frameworks and automations used by the global data team.
